CITY ACCEPTS FILTER JOB

PWA Project Recently
Completed Gives Promise
Of Adequate, Clear Supply

Plenty of water at all times! Fall, Winter, or in the "good old summertime"—even in the late afternoons on hot summer days when everyone is sprinkling their lawns!

This was the assurance given this week when the City Board of Trustees formally accepted the $18,267 improvement at the city filtration plant atop Pacific Hill.

The board with Engineer Clifton H. Wildman, and Harrison McBeth, plant superintendent, made a personal inspection of the completed project the first of the week and declared that the plant is efficient as any in northern California.

Members of the inspection group included: Councilmen George E. Faust, James K. Pierson, Chas. E. Molinari and A. H. Greeley, and Fred N. Hosking, absent, was represented by proxy.

The much needed improvements were begun more than two months ago and bring the total value of the entire filtration plant to an approximate $30,000 investment, owned by the city and free of indebtedness. It was a PWA project. The federal government made a direct grant of a little over $8,000 against the city cash outlay of 55 per cent or a little over $10,000, to make the total working capital for the project.

It is worthy of mention here that the city's part of the cost of the improvements came from the water works fund which had been accumulated over a period of years by diligent efforts of thrifty and far-seeing members of the board, realizing that this much-needed improvement would have to be met.

Hook Chosen As C. Of C. Head

John A. Raffetto, Jr.,
Vice-President; Dinner
Meeting Monday Night

E. Ogden Hook, of the Placerville Branch of the Bank of America, was elected president of the county Chamber of Commerce for the ensuing year at an organization meeting of the recently chosen board of directors on Wednesday night at Hotel Raffles.

Mr. Hook succeeds Reuel V. Whigham, of the Diamond Springs Lime Company, under whose guidance the organization during the past year has undertaken with a measure of success, a county-wide expansion program in addition to carrying on its normal activities in behalf of the growth and development of the county.

John A. Raffetto, Jr., was elected vice-president.

The new officers will begin their duties at the regular annual dinner meeting of the membership, which will be held Monday night at 7 o'clock at Hotel Raffles.

In addition to the reports of the outgoing officers and the committee chairman for the past year, the members look forward to having as their special guest of the evening Harry C. Peterson, curator of the museum at Sutter's Fort.

The directors discussed informally at their organization meeting on Wednesday night a number of matters which will be presented to the membership at the dinner meeting.

This year seven directors were elected in the largest ballot in the Chamber of Commerce history. They are, L. J. Anderson, H. P. Brown, P. Norman Cello, C. W. Doe, Jr., Cyril H. Heusner, Ogden Hook and J. H. Rodes.

Hold-over directors are Swift Berry, Harry Bell, Lloyd Cannon, A. H. Murray, John Raffetto, Ernest Van Harlingen, John A. Winkelman and Reuel V. Whigham.

Max Schmeling In Jam With Nazi Leaders

LONDON, (UP)—The Daily Herald reported today that Max Schmeling, former heavyweight boxing champ, is in trouble with the Nazi authorities.

The paper said that on Monday Schmeling visited the propaganda ministry in Berlin, where he was questioned at length. Reports that Schmeling's film star wife, Anny Ondra, had been arrested for an alleged breach of German currency regulations are untrue, the paper said.

50TH WEDDING DAY FETED

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wentz
Honored By Relatives And Friends At Dinner Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wentz, of Pleasant Valley, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Sunday at a gathering of relatives and friends numbering approximately forty at the home place where they have spent their entire life.

A wedding dinner and a short program with four generations of the family in attendance, marked the day.

The couple were wed on January 7, 1889, at Pleasant Valley, on the site of their present home although not in the present building, before Albert Norris, Justice of the Peace. They have made their home there since that time.

Mr. Wentz is a native of Ohio, born October 10, 1852, who came to California by way of the Isthmus of Panama and landed at San Francisco on November 14, 1853.

He came almost directly to El Dorado county and has since made his home here. As a young man, he engaged in freighting and in farming, and his stories of the pioneer life in the county reveal his vivid memory, despite his four score and six years, of stirring happenings in the early days.

Mrs. Wentz was born Mary Church, at Fairplay, this county, on March 4, 1863. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Church, who operated a general merchandise store at Fairplay as early as 1849.

Mrs. Wentz carries on her household.

LUMBER EMPLOYEES PROTEST U. S. USE OF COTTON BAGS

County Box Factory Workers Solicit Public
Support In Move To Prevent Slap At
Industry By Surplus Commodities Corporation

Public support of their protest against the proposed use of cotton bags by the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation in its shipment of oranges is asked by the officers and directors of the El Dorado County Wooden Box and Lumber Employees' Association who at a meeting on Tuesday night, went on record as opposing the cotton bags.

El Dorado County residents who will co-operate with the lumbering industry in this protest, in which success or failure has a real importance to the industry in the county as well as elsewhere on the Pacific Slope, are asked to write to their Congressmen expressing their views in the matter.

The box factory workers report Congressman Harry L. Elliott, Senator Sheridan Downey and Senator Hiram Johnson may all be addressed at Washington. That it is learned approximately eight million dollars worth of California oranges will be purchased by the F. S. C. C. and that the use of cotton bags is permitted, as now intended, the box lumber business in California will lose the sale of between six and seven million citrus boxes.

This, it is stated, represents the loss of about 40,000 man days of employment or about two months of work for 1,000 men.

Locally, it is pointed out, the principal winter work of the box factories is on shuck used for citrus boxes.

The lumbering industry is addressing its protest to Senator E. R. Burke, Washington, and to Jesse W. Tapp, president of the F. S. C. C., 1901 D Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

In addition to protesting to our members in Congress, individuals also address these last-named gentlemen.

SOILS TOUR FRIDAY TO VISIT FARMS IN COUNTY

If you fail to get to the Ed Odlin ranch on Coloma road Friday morning, in time to join with the rest of those taking part in the soils study tour arranged by the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service, you will find the group at the Lee Veerkamp ranch at 9:45 or at the R. A. Patterson ranch at 10:30.

The afternoon tour opens at the Bongetta ranch on U. S. 50 west of Merryman's at 1:15 o'clock, and goes from there to the Earl Fruit ranch at the five-mile stone at 2 p. m.

Ten cars of farmers from Auburn are reported as coming to El Dorado County to join the tour.

Col. Ruppert Reported "Sinking Perceptibly"

NEW YORK, (UP)—Col. Jacob Ruppert, 71, owner of the New York Yankees, was "sinking perceptibly" today and was believed dying. Ruppert has been confined to his home with a complication of diseases which followed an attack of pleuritis, inflammation of the leg, last April.

Chinese Cut Rail Line To Manchukuo

TIENSIN, (UP)—Daring Chinese soldiers, operating in a zone which had been under Japanese domination since the start of the war, have cut the important Tientsin-Peking railroad, severing Japanese army rail communications with Manchukuo and Japan, it was disclosed today.

New Bill Bans Game 'Derbies' Of 'Sportsmen'

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—California sportsmen will be affected by a series of new fish and game bills before the legislature, particularly in the administration of the state fish and game commission.

Both houses were marking time with introduction of only a few bills. The big push is expected next week, both because the interim recess has been recommended for Jan. 21, and because Governor Culbert L. Olson is expected back in his office after a week in the hospital from a nervous exhaustion collapse.

Harrison W. Call, assemblyman from Redwood City, took the initiative in presenting fish and game bills. One of his most important and controversial would eliminate all fishing and hunting contests, such as bass and deer derbies.

Frankfurter Likely To Win Confirmation

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Prof. Felix Frankfurter, supreme court nominee, today expressed his full devotion to the principles and practices of Americanism and his firm belief in the Constitution of the United States.

Immediately after hearing the 56 year old Harvard professor's exposition of his principles and beliefs, Chairman M. M. Neely, D., W. Va., of the judiciary sub-committee ordered the hearings on the nomination closed and called an immediate committee session to vote on the nomination.

Mikkelsen Speaks For Skiers Tonight

Roy Mikkelsen, twice national ski jumping champion, will be the speaker tonight (Thursday) at the regular meeting of the Placerville Ski Club.

Owing to the large number expected to attend the meeting, and in view of the report that Mr. Mikkelsen is bringing some pictures of winter sports with him, the meeting of the club has been changed from its accustomed place at the P. G. E. auditorium, and will be held at the Superior Court room. The general public is welcome to attend.

Guam Fortifications Alarm Japanese

TOKYO, (UP)—The Japanese navy is gravely concerned by reports that the United States is planning strong fortifications for Guam, an official spokesman said today.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Longhurst left Wednesday afternoon for a ten days or two weeks vacation trip, which will include a visit to interesting places along the coast between San Francisco and San Diego, and a short trip into Old Mexico.

Collins Greet Car Dealers

Studebaker Service Club
Holds First Meeting In Placerville On Friday

Friday night more than 30 service men, from Studebaker dealerships throughout northern California will meet in Placerville at the C. S. Collins Studebaker show room at the junction of Bridge and Market streets in Uppertown, for the initial meeting of this zone's Studebaker Service Club, an organization recently sponsored by the Studebaker Corporation of South Bend, Indiana and the dealers.

This is according to C. S. Collins local dealer-distributor whose organization will be host for the first meeting. After the meeting refreshments are to be served.

The meeting in "Old Hangtown," was decided upon at a preliminary and organization meeting held in Sacramento last month when Collins suggested that because of the historic background of the Studebaker Corporation, based on its founder's meagre beginning here in the '60's, when John Studebaker made wheelbarrows for the miners working in the diggings of El Dorado County, the club's first regular meeting should be held in this city.

"This particular significance should interest many dealers and their service men," stated Collins. "We are therefore preparing for quite a large attendance from all points in the zone throughout the northern part of California and the upper San Joaquin Valley."

Part of the entertainment program will be a tour of "Hangtown," with a visit to the site of the old Studebaker shop on Main street adjoining the Placerville Coca Cola Bottling Works.

Representatives from the C. S. Collins agency, in addition to Mr. Collins, will include George Collup and James Foose, mechanic, and Clarence Rank, mechanic, Georgetown; Bill Saunders, service man, and Ted Buhlert, mechanic, Placerville.

"Two-Price System" Is Declared Sidelacked

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace disclosed today that the "two price system" for disposal of agricultural surpluses has been sidetracked. He declined, however, to say whether the idea for subsidizing consumption had been discarded.

Mrs. Emily Burston, a sister of the late Mrs. Will Rust, is reported as resting easily at the Rust home, taken ill earlier in the week, she has been advised by her physician to remain in bed for several days.

Reward for Sea Rescue

Captain Clifton Smith of the American freighter Schodack is kissed by Mrs. Bernhard Welde Larsen and her daughter, Svanhild, as they show their appreciation for rescue from the doomed freighter Smaragd during a gale 600 miles at sea. The Schodack removed the 18-man crew and two women, wife and daughter of Captain Larsen, and brought them to Hoboken, N. J., where this picture was taken.

525 MILLIONS ASKED FOR EMERGENCY DEFENSE

President Cites Changes In Military Tactics
Since World War And Points New Program Toward
Strengthening Of Army And Navy Air Forces

WASHINGTON, (UP)—President Roosevelt, citing the threats of war and aggression rumbling through the world, called on congress today to authorize a special $250,000,000 emergency defense program of which $210,000,000 would actually be expended during the fiscal year 1940.

Mr. Roosevelt's defense message asked that the funds be provided by congress "as speedily as possible" so that a program to bolster the nation's defenses, particularly the aviation forces of army and navy, could be launched immediately.

Mr. Roosevelt did not recommend any exact number of planes to be built under the new air construction program. He declared, instead, that it was the intention of army chiefs to set up a lump sum of $300,000,000 for military plane production in an effort to reduce unit costs and place national aviation manufacture on a mass production basis.

"It is equally sensational and untrue," said Mr. Roosevelt, "to take the position that we must at once and spend billions of additional money for building up our land, sea and air forces on the one hand or to insist that no further additions are necessary on the other."

The President said that between these two extremes it was necessary to emphasize the dangers that have arisen in the world and the changes in military tactics which have occurred since World War days.

He denied that he had any intent of leading the United States into participation in any new European war but emphasized that the experience of 1917 showed that "we were not ready to conduct large scale land or air operations."

Officials of Rociada telephoned Las Vegas authorities that the village faced starvation. Low, Bibo, pilot employed by a Las Vegas newspaper, packed his plane with food and dropped it over Rociada late yesterday.

El Doradoans Abroad

We try to keep track of everyone, but being only human we fall short of that goal. However, in the interest of doing the best we can, here are some late items on the "goings" of El Doradoans.

Bart Arundel stopped at Davis recently to talk with Fire Chief J. D. Miller about the Northern California Firemen's convention, says The Davis Enterprise.

Mrs. Agnes Ailman was at Willows for Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Whitmer Breneman, notes The Willows Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Willard and daughter were noted at Healdsburg for Christmas with the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Null, by The Sentinel of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Herli spent Christmas at Red Bluff with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen, and got their names in the Red Bluff News.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whipple had Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Martin, at Tuolumne, and their visit was recorded by The Prospector.

Mr. and Mrs. Ven Norris and son, George, were at Winters for the New Year holiday with Mrs. H. B. Cooper, according to The Express.

Miss Pat Ailman is reported by the Willows Farmer as a visitor during the Christmas week-end with Miss Jean Bache.

Roy Spidell had his name in The Woodland Record, as a result of spending Christmas with his parents at Capay.

Bud Johnson was at Orland, The Register reports, for dinner with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Johnson.

Bud Goodin went to Willows for Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Goodin, and The Journal reporter heard about it.

Farm Advisor and Mrs. Ivan Lilley stayed at the Whitecotton hotel while in Berkeley for the recent conference, according to The Gazette.

CITY BUILDING ENJOYS BOOM

Calendar Year Shows
$198,635 In Permits;
$104,800 For Homes

Building permits issued in Placerville during the last calendar year authorized construction of a total value of $198,635 of which $104,800 was for new residences or for additions or repairs to homes.

Although the official city figures on building permits are for the fiscal year rather than for the calendar year it would appear that the total value of permits issued between January 1, 1938 and December of that year is larger than for several years past.

Sixty-six permits were issued during the last fiscal year for construction valued at $136,535, while sixty-eight permits are included in the total for the calendar year.

The figures for both the calendar year and the fiscal year include the $40,000 permit for the addition to Placerville Grammar school, issued last January. However, the calendar year total is still well ahead of the fiscal year total, even when the grammar school permit is deducted.

The permits indicate that thirty-seven new homes were started in the county seat during the past year. In addition to the grammar school permit, other large permits for buildings other than residences included the permit for the Highway Patrol office, $2,700; the Green Line Grocery building, $11,000; the Bluebell Coffee Shop, $9,900; to P. Van Der Auwera, $3,500; to N. Fox, $3,500.

Malingers On WPA Are Hit

First Major Clash In Congress Arises Over
Relief Appropriation

WASHINGTON, (UP)—The full house appropriations committee demanded today that relief rolls be "purged of malingers" and recommended formally that the house grant President Roosevelt only $725,000,000 instead of the $875,000,000 that he requested for the Works Progress Administration.

The charge of WPA malingering was made by the democratic majority of the committee. The Republican minority, concurrently, submitted a report charging "scandal and abuse" in political abuse of the WPA.

With those statements the bill to finance WPA until June 30 was pitched into the house, where debate began at once.

The trimming of President Roosevelt's recommendations by $150,000,000 precipitated the first major conflict of the 76th congress — a fight between conservative democrats and republicans and the President. The result will be determined by a roll call vote—probably tomorrow—that will put every member on record.

Maxine Potts Greeted With School Party

Last year Maxine Potts celebrated her tenth birthday by having Miss Kathleen Richardson's entire fifth grade class from the grammar school to a party at her home. At that time she was unable to attend classes owing to illness.

Last Monday, after two year's absence, Maxine returned to her sixth grade class and her birthday, January 11, was observed by her classmates and Miss Richardson at a party in her honor at the school.

She received a dress from the class as a remembrance. Delores Keyser and Paul Ewing won prizes in games. Refreshments were served to complete a very happy day.

Broadway Clowns Seen By Large Gathering

The high school gym was packed Wednesday night to see the Broadway Clowns, who demonstrated they know something about basketball, play the Cougars. The Clowns won, 41 to 35.

In a preliminary the Cougar Bees defeated the De Molay, 14 to 12.

Mrs. Richard Cozens, Mrs. Pearl Schwartz and Mrs. Edwin Smith, with Dorothy Cozens and Barbara Smith, left Wednesday for the Bay District. The girls are returning to school at the University and the ladies will visit for a few days at Berkeley with Mrs. William Allison.

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — If you'll cross your heart and hope to die I'll tell you: that Grover Whalen, who must be looking like a periscope by now, hasn't a chance to arrange the world's fair match between golfers Henry Cotton of England and Sammy Snead of the United States. Snead is willing, but Cotton, who holds his services very dearly, has demanded too much money. ## Clock Is Aid in Training a Child

Dr. Myers Says That Infant Is Fortunate Who Is Fed, Bathed, Put to Bed by It

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

PRACTICALLY every home has a clock. Not all mothers, however, use it; nor are their babies or children aware of its presence. Fortunately the infant who is fed, bathed and put to bed by the clock, who even before the clock tells us it is time to go to bed. Still more fortunate, perhaps, is the older child who puts himself to bed by the clock.

The clock is also a helpful aid if you choose to punish your child by assigning him to sit in a chair doing nothing for so many minutes. And this is very effective and humane punishment for the child from two to ten or 12, if he has learned to respect authority. In case you tell the child to sit there till you let him get down, you tempt him to beg, argue and cry. He will discover that how long he will have to sit there will depend on how you feel or how well he can manage you. But if he knows he is to sit there for exactly 20 minutes, he soon finds no occasion to work on your feelings. Stoically he takes his medicine and profits from it. He knows the clock has no emotions, it gets no headache, never gets nervous. No matter how much he argues, whines or cries, it ticks calmly on. A child learns early to respect a clock.

House Often Overheated
In winter far more houses are too hot than the number too cold. There's no better way to catch colds than to live in rooms with temperatures over 68 or 72 degrees. Unfortunately, many parents don't know how hot their houses are; they have a thermometer.

If there are old people in the home, they are likely to have the house far too hot, even where there also are growing children. There's no use to argue with them. Get a thermometer. Show them authoritative books which tell them the upper limits of heat for health, or have your doctor tell them. I can remember that my father, in his late years, would always keep the fires so hot that the rest of us felt roasted. When I put a thermometer in the living room, I found the temperature usually was above 80. But after that it was not difficult to get Father to keep the room below 70. It was definite.

Household Hints

When you're buying toys for tiny tots, don't forget to get those that won't be harmed by washing.

It is a much simpler matter to "window condition" a house than it is to air condition it. This window conditioning has been made easy by the new types of storm sash or "winter" windows on the market.

Originally the old storm window was rather bulky and unsightly. Now there is available a wide choice of modern winter windows and prefabricated double sash units that are even easy to clean on the outside.

And there's no denying that with these winter windows fuel bills are less, cold zones near windows and on the floors are warmer, and the old annoyances of foggy window panes, excessive condensation, and attendant ills resulting from that same condensation, have been eliminated.

Coupled with the growth reflected in our record total of postal receipts for the past year, this is another argument in behalf of early action on our new postoffice building.

Rudy Vallee gives the night an excellent start with his regular KPO at the 5 o'clock appearance. Joe Penner swings into KSFO at 5:30.

Major Bowes has the 6 o'clock hour on KSFO and KPO offers Good News of 1939 at the same time.

Mr. Crosby convenes the music hall, KPO at seven, and Mr. Jones and Mr. Brown are on KPO again at 8 as everyone knows. However, Amos and Andy are, to this writer's notion, so much a radio institution that they deserve the tribute of daily mention. And that doesn't mean that we listen to them every night, either.

Regular Thursday night symphony hour, KPO at 8:15 and Kate Smith, KSFO, at 8:30. These seem to be the top spots of the evening.

Using a good grade of furniture oil to polish the enameled surfaces of kitchen cabinets is a help to one housewife, she declares. After washing them, each week she polishes them briskly with a little of the polish oil until lustre is restored. She rubs the oil in thoroughly, to avoid any dust catching film being left on.

WINTER SPORTS SEASON means skiing and tobogganing and all kinds of fun in the snow, and it also means that the Placerville Golf course is in its best condition of the year, and these pictures by our staff photographer prove just that. The "gallery" in the upper picture, is on the ninth green. Left to right, those who are watching J. C. Wilson sink that putt are Larry Kelly, the club "pro," Les Burger, Bob Patterson, Bron Smith and Don Goehrich. The left center view is of the 364-yard second fairway, and immediately below is the 160-yard seventh. Lower right, Larry Kelly advises Bron Smith to grip the club "like that."

CITY ACCEPTS FILTER JOB

City Engineer H. Wildman, Sacramento, has a plant that cost $250,000, capable of producing 64-100,000 gallons a day, while our plant cost approximately $30,000 and will produce 2,000,000 gallons of pure, clear water, at normal operation.

A comparison of investments, the capacity output, according to engineer Clifton H. Wildman, Sacramento, has a plant that cost $250,000, capable of producing 64-100,000 gallons a day, while our plant cost approximately $30,000 and will produce 2,000,000 gallons of pure, clear water, at normal operation.

Now, a 40,000 gallon tank for filtered water.

A 45,000 gallon clear water tank for washing gravel, tubs, a waste of the sand, and a new model installed at the bottom of four filtration tanks, with other new improvements at the plant.

A new water main, capable of supplying the entire city leading from the plant down Clark street, to that street's junction with Pacific street.

A new 4-inch line, from the junction of Clark and Pacific streets to Benham street, connecting the two.

There are a few other incidental improvements in connection with the job but the ones enumerated just about cover the main improvements.

One thing which is of vast improvement to city water users is that with the present improved setup plenty of water can be secured at all times. With the new storage tank, holding 250,000 gallons, connected now with the 165,000 gallon tank that was already at the plant, and with the small 45,000 gallon clear water tank, which can be used in an emergency, forms a combination of storage of 460,000 gallons capacity. It is to be noted that with this excellent storage capacity for filtered water there will be no overworking of plant facilities during the hot weather when water consumption is exceptionally high as has been the necessary practice in the past.

Each filtering basin or tank, of which there are four, receives water from the primary alum settling reservoir, and at normal operation will produce 10,000 gallons of clear water every minute. During last summer when water consumption was high it was necessary to step this production up to 15,000 gallons or more, thus overloading the plant's filtering operations. This, it was pointed out, does no particular harm to the plant, but resulted in less clear water, because of rushed operations.

The installation of the new supply water main into the city's water networks, gives an assurance of safety and guarantees a sufficient supply at all times. Before this pipeline was installed down Clark street to Pacific, there was only one main pipe from the source of supply from the storage tanks at the filtration plant.

In summing up the board of trustees announce that we now have one of the finest water supplies and purifying systems to be found anywhere. It is now in excellent working, it is very inexpensive in operation and is one of the finest businesses that the city owns. And further the water rate to city consumers is comparatively lower than

Summit Notes

The Farm Bureau meeting on Thursday, January 5, was very well attended considering the weather conditions. The speaker of the evening was unable to attend, but the Summit Dramatic Club presented a play entitled, "Healthy, the Milk Clown," which was enjoyed by all.

The cast was as follows: "Healthy," Fred Fritz; "Fannie Fat," Mrs. H. Bradford; "Sally Sugar," Mrs. Clarence Rank; "Lilly Lime," Mrs. Willard Dean; "Viola Vitamin," Mrs. R. W. McCoy; "Patrick Protein," Mr. Gaylord Blevins, and last but not least, "The Cow," played by Mr. R. W. McCoy and Mr. Joe Bender. The Milk Song was sung by the entire cast, and then the audience, which had been given copies of the song, joined in on the chorus. There were games and singing and a few short talks, after which delicious refreshments were served. The club met again on Monday night to choose the cast for a play to be given sometime in March; also another to be presented at the next Farm Bureau meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lalor and son, and Mr. and Mrs. George Waterman, of Sacramento, came up Monday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. P. Lalor.

Paul Moteith moved into his new home Sunday.

James Drake was transacting business at the county seat last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blue were in Placerville Saturday and Monday. Mrs. J. C. O'Neill was in Placerville Monday on business.

The following was received last week too late for publication: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Flick and son Richard are celebrating the advent of the New Year with relatives and friends in Sacramento and Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkie, of Jackson, spent New Years Eve at the home of James Drake.

Elgin Chard and Buster Stansby returned Friday from Oakland, Mr.

and Mrs. Bill McCleary brought them home.

Jack Berry and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blue attended the New Years Eve dance at the Aukum-Fairplay Grange Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. James Drake entertained a few of their friends at dinner Saturday night. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkie, of Jackson, Ralph Smyth, Mrs. J. C. O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blue. Some of the guests remained to give a welcome to little 1939.

Paul Monteith is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor across the river to the R. B. Bronson mine Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blue were at Placerville Friday.

Will Frey is spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Sarah Frey, in Coloma.

50TH WEDDING DAY FETED

hold duties and attends to a large portion of the outside duties at their small ranch property, at the same time giving devoted care to Mr. Wentz who lost his sight several years ago.

The table at which the wedding dinner was served had as a centerpiece a wedding cake twenty-four inches square which had been made by Mrs. A. E. Timmons, great-niece of Mr. Wentz. The cake was trimmed in white and gold and at the top was decorated by two small characters of a man and a woman, clothed as nearly as possible as were the honor guests on their first wedding day.

White tapers were used at the corners which were banked with flowers. Other decorations were in the gold and white scheme.

Following dinner, W. J. Steffens, acting as master of ceremonies, called upon Mrs. Addie Maynard, of Sacramento, who told of the wedding fifty years before, which she had attended as a bridesmaid.

M. T. Kelly, of Placerville, long a friend of the honored couple, gave an interesting talk and this was followed by a song, "I Love You Truly," by Mrs. W. J. Steffens, Mrs. W. B. Farrar, Juanita Stermer and Mrs. A. E. Timmons, all nieces of Mr. Wentz. They were all attired in old-fashioned costumes and sang to violin accompaniment by Virgil Gearhart, a nephew of Mr. Wentz.

Young Mr. Gearhart and Kenneth Thompson also played an original waltz which they had composed, and dedicated the number to the golden wedding anniversary, and during the balance of the afternoon were heard in other numbers.

Among those who attended the golden anniversary observance, and who upon taking their leave extended all good wishes to the honored couple, were:

Martin and Joseph Ahart and Joseph Bender, of Pleasant Valley; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Steffens and son; Mrs. Paul Jorgensen and son; Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Kelly, Kenneth Thompson and Carol G. Land, of Placerville;

Miss Inez Ferrari, of Smith Flat; Mrs. H. M. Stermer, Elmer and Juanita Stermer, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stermer and son, and Mrs. George Stermer and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Timmons, of Pacific House;

Mrs. Addie Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Overwater and family; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Overwater and Pete Overwater, of Sacramento; and

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Farrar and Mrs. W. B. Farrar, of Walnut Creek.

CAMINO

Camino school re-opened January 4th, 1939, with 113 pupils enrolled.

Pupils of upper grades carried out their usual program of making wooden toys for Christmas gifts to children of pre-school age. Sixty-five wheelbarrows were made. The wheelbarrows were made by the boys and the girls did the painting. They especially enjoyed the basement under the new room as a place to work.

Wooden toy making is our part of the Wooden Box Campaign.

Pupils on the honor roll since beginning of school this term are Allen McNie, 6th grade; Alice Burrows, Elsie Day, Ralph Hughes, Jerry Potts, Alleen Wiley, and Burton Williams, all of the seventh grade; Wilma Austin, Louie Brunello, Junior Nida, Edward Stafford, and Stanley Woodridge all of the eighth grade. Pupils neither absent or tardy since opening of the term are Jeanette Bolles, Evelyn Hull, Erma Jordan, John Prouty, Hugh Shafer, Irene Fisher, Winifred Jordan, John Huot, Filmore Jordan, Kenneth Potts, Robert Taylor, Lila Dean, Joe Huot, Fred Ball, Louie Brunello, Cleo Buchanan, Thelma Baromini, Patsy Ann Cook, Loraine Culley, Robert Fairbairn, Alleen Wiley, Virginia Hayes, Myrtle McGregor, and Junior Nida.

Mr. and Mrs. William Larsen, Mrs. J. Barkley, and Milt Miller were business callers in Sacramento Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Reese spent the week-end at Grass Valley with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. Reese. They also visited the Anderson family. On Saturday they attended the barbecue festival in Sacramento.

Mrs. Paul Taylor, from Placerville, was a business caller here Friday.

Mrs. Myrtle Wainner, daughter of Alta, and son Lloyd, returned Saturday from a two month visit with relatives at Edwards, Missouri. They made the trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steussy and son John and Francis Davenport, from Sacramento, spent the week-end with George Davenport, Sr., and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Woodridge and son and Mrs. Daisy Davey visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tonzi and daughters at Ione recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Howard left Sunday for their home in Springfield, Missouri, after visiting here three weeks with their son, Freeman Howard, and his wife, who accompanied them as far as Sacramento.

A Cottage With Charm

Simple design and arrangement lift this small home out of the realm of commonplace and make it an attractive and highly livable dwelling.

The house is situated in New Sheffield, Pa., where it was built with the assistance of a $4,500 mortgage insured by the Federal Housing Administration. The property was valued at $5,775.

Among the features of the house are unusual fenestration, effective doorway and entrance, fireplace, and attached garage.
